Kola Bay

1. On [redacted] Lodeiny Point a motor gun boat, [redacted] was observed, [redacted]
2. At Polyarnoye a number of small warships were observed outward bound but on account of the foggy weather it was impossible to make any detailed observations.
3. At Tyuva Bay several small warships were also observed together with motor torpedo boats but the range was too great to observe any details.
4. At Salny Point four medium-sized submarines were observed [redacted] [redacted] but the only detail which could be ascertained with any degree of certainty was that none carried guns on deck.
5. At the Vayenga Bay seaplane base eight twin-engined seaplanes were observed hauled up on the slipways.
6. At Gryaznaya Bay there were a number of small vessels resembling torpedo boats at anchor. A floating dock with an approximate capacity of 6,000 tons was also observed. At Roslyakova there were a number of torpedo boats at anchor.

Rosta

7. At the shipyard in Rosta there were four medium-sized submarines resembling those observed at Salny Point. One of these submarines appeared to be quite new.
  8. Along the quay south of the drydock there lay four destroyers of either the Derzki or Lenin Class. Inside the drydock was a 9,000-ton Soviet cargo vessel.
- Radar
9. Radar installations were observed at the following places, but the only description given was that the aerial was a four-sided framework turning
